

when he spoke on the Governor's Address yesterday, when I was not present, and misquoted me. I made a reference in my speech that if the Mahajan Commission Report is not implemented and if Belgaum is going to be divided, there will be blood-shed we Kannadigas are not prepared to part with even an inch of land and the last resort open to us is to rise in revolt. As you are aware, Sir, the report was given by a highest judicial authority and that ought to have been implemented by the Central Government. Instead of implementing it, now there is a strong rumour that it is not going to be implemented. Sir, I stand by the statement I made.

Sri B. B. SAYANAK (Belgaum).—Sir, I rise to a Point of Order. My friend Sri D. M. Siddaiah has made some statement just now. He wants to have blood-shed in Belgaum.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The hon. Member will please state his Point of Order in a minute.

Sri B. B. SAYANAK.—Sir, when Sri Siddaiah raised a Point of Order, you allowed him some time. When I rise on a Point of Order, you want me to state the point in a minute. You are partial.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The hon. member must withdraw that statement.

Sri B. B. SAYANAK.—I cannot.

2-30 P.M.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The hon. Member should withdraw that remark.

Sri B. B. SAYANAK —No Sir, I am not going to withdraw that.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I direct the Hon. Member to withdraw from the House.

Sri B. B. SAYANAK.—Yes, I withdraw from the House.

(Sri B. B. Sayanak withdrew)

Sri ABDUL KHUDDUS ANWAR.—I want to know how an hon. Member could direct another hon. Member to withdraw from the House? Who is he to direct him?

Mr. SPEAKER.—I am not aware of it. It is the function of the Speaker to direct or request the Hon. Members to withdraw from the House.

Sri S. SIVAPPA.—Hon. Member Sri Kalyan Rao has said that.

Sri D. DEVARAJ URS.—It is very correct that it is only for the Hon. Speaker to ask a Member to withdraw from the House. The other hon. members are expected to be silent over the matter or if they have anything to say on that matter, they can do so, only with the permission of the Hon. Chair. But the hon. member behind me said "yes, you get out" while hon. Member Sri B. B. Sayanak was withdrawing from the House. This is certainly unbecoming on the part of the hon. member from Hyderabad region. I do not remember his name.
